When is a ménage not really a ménage?

Officer Abigail O'Connell, Maine Game Warden, and Glennon Garrett, GMG security and surveillance expert, get hot for each other while on protection detail at Sanctuary lodge. After the crisis is resolved, there's no reason to remain hands off. Hot sex commences, even with Glennon's shattered leg in a cast and fractured arm in a sling.

When handsome Deputy Joe Collins uses the house key Abigail gave him, he unintentionally observes the couple naked in Abigail's bed in a compromising position--several positions, actually.

Abigail is Joe's friend, his buddy; the rule was never hit on each other. Breaking free of her self-imposed celibacy, Abigail is suddenly enjoying hot wild sex with a buff, muscled macho dude. Joe's difficulty arises not only with jealousy over Abigail going from sexual famine to sensual feast, but with his unexpected attraction to her partner, Glennon.

When the three get rip-roaring toasted on a straight tequila night, Jose Cuervo flies and inhibitions die. How will the two men react to each other--and to Abigail--in the harsh light of day? And who is the stalker in their midst who can reveal their most intimate secrets?

By It's About The Book

I love Danica's writing and this book delivered all that I expected and more. She's certainly not afraid to hit any sexual subject—even if her characters are! I found it funny and sweet that even alpha Glennon was able to overcome his issues and get on board with his sweet and uncommon love for Joe and it all worked out really well in this latest (to me) Sanctuary story.

Glennon Garrett is recovering from an injury he got in an earlier book, but he didn't let his full leg cast and damaged arm stop him from a crazy-hot sexcapade with Game Warden Abigail O'Connell. When her best friend and working buddy Joe shows up one night when they are toasted, nature and tequila take their course and the three of them engage in a frisky menage. Surprisingly, the connection between Glennon and Joe is the one that gets the most attention.

Glennon's always had relationships with women for the most part—not counting his sexual one with a military buddy while overseas—so the fact that he's so crazily attracted to Abigail's friend Joe is making him feel a little stupid and a lot uncomfortable. What's going on? And when Joe returns his interest and they fall into heated passion, it completely blows his mind. WTF!?! Why does being with Joe feel so right?

When Abigail kicks him out, he moves on to Joe and they continue their affair—but on the down-low. Damaging photos show up, however, that would make his relationship with Joe VERY public. Glennon's concerned about what the other alpha men in Sanctuary will think, and his hesitation hurts Joe and causes Abigail and others to get really angry with him. He's going to have to step up and acknowledge both his feelings and his relationship with Joe or else lose the first person he's ever felt close to.

But someone else has got plans for Joe. If they get to him first, Glennon's going to lose his chance at a forever love...
