A fine story, but numerous scanning errors

By T. Van Belle

My daughter and I have been working our way through all the Enid Blyton books. She loves them, but the actual text itself is fairly poor quality. It was obviously scanned in from the paper books, and no-one has bothered to go through and correct all the typos introduced in the process. So, for example, the dog Timmy ends up as "Jimmy" for pages at a time.

Loved It!

By Sydney Acquaye

I read these books when I was 8-10 yrs with my best friend. I absolutely LOVED these books! Enid Blyton is a great kids' author and the Famous Five was very engaging! I'd recommend these for kids between ages 8-12.

Another Great Famous Five Book

By Nicole Wojcik

When a tree falls on George's house, the Famous Five are sent to a fellow scientist's house. "Sooty" shows them how to have fun, by climbing on the city walls and going through secret tunnels. George gets in trouble, and is locked in her room until her dad arrives. Meanwhile Timmy disappears, and Block, deaf, is seen talking with a well known smuggler. When George's dad and Sooty disappear, the Five must find them before it's too late, but do they suspect the wrong person?
