Great Short Story

By Athena

This is a short story but it is well written and the chemistry between Jace and Laila is hot, hot, hot! The gist of the story - Laila was sent out to the ranch in the middle of nowhere to do a story on cowboys/ranch; and Jace the owner of the Ranch is the ultimate rugged, hot and great looking cowboy with a bit of clumsiness and shyness thrown in. Perfect! The chemistry/attraction between the two of them began at the airport and from there we get to see the development of a relationship between the two. The love scenes were beautifully done and kept you on the edge! Overall, a really great story.

He had me at, "if it's okay with you, I'd like to court you" !

By Yazi

I've read a few of Tali Martel's stories, and I have simply fallen head over heels in love with her heroes. As soon as Jace asked to court our heroine, I melted inside and went all giggly and warm. I mean, you can't get as sexy as this guy right here! He's a gentleman (at least he tries his hardest to be despite the whorish efforts of the heroine, THROWING HERSELF AT HIM! I mean if I were her, I would be feeling all kinds of horny too, but it's not every day that a man wants to COURT YOU! Give him a couple days at least woman! Sorry, I digress), a COWBOY (hello, every girl's fantasy!), a perfect mix of shy and virile, and last but not least, he's just gorgeous. I can definitely say that he is why I love this story. The story-line was good, used before, but good.

The only cons I can think of (and this is just me and my preference), is the fact that they jumped into bed after ONE DAY, and then proclaimed love after sex...It just doesn't happen. Sex does not equal Love, but that is just my conviction. Another con (one less biased lol), was the spelling error here and there. Either than that, I love Tali Martel's books, and I'm looking forward to whatever else she has in store for us.

If you're a sucker for heroes who are not only sexy, but want to do right by the heroine, then this is your book. If you don't really care for something like this then move along because this is your average cowboy falls in love with city girl type book.
