Beckoned by the King to travel the Splendid Way, the young knight must keep his armor on at all cost. All along the way he is challenged and tempted to take his armor off. Many try to convince him that the battle is not worth the fight. Only those who keep their armor on are able to see the real battle that rages before them, and only those with a pure heart will keep their armor on a fun read, and plenty of depth

Another variation of Pilgrim's Progress, except this time we are running into the personal glitches that a person is tested in on the walk, not just the character issues of certain "believers". Very interesting, a fun read, and plenty of depth.
