Reads like a fine wine

By Michael H. Tidemann

Anyone interested in early Fante should read this book which includes Dago Red which was published as a separate volume.

This books shows the seeds of a writer taking root and growing into an artist. Included are several of Fante's early stories - Bricklayer in the Snow, First Communion, and Altar Boy - all revealing of the heart and emotions of the writer.

Interestingly, the copy I bought secondhand came from the Boulder, Colo. Public Library, the same town where many of the stories are set. I think I'll keep it.

Great!

By J. Kastin

Truly spellbinding, remarkably evocative. Another example of Fante's wonderful use of language. Captivating!
