"Surprise... You're pregnant!"

Obstetrician Avery Wallace has uttered those words but never had them said to her...till now, just three weeks after her unexpected New Year's Eve with the hospital's "Dr. Romeo," Justin Garrett. But Avery's sworn off marriage, motherhood and men—especially doctors. And it isn't attraction she feels for the sexy ER doc...it's pregnancy hormones!

"Let's get married."

One night isn't enough for Justin, not when he's crushed on Avery for years. But a baby? Not in his plans. So no one's more surprised by his proposal...or more disappointed by her refusal. The hospital's buzzing but Justin doesn't care. He knows what to do—and he has a little over eight months to do it: convince Avery to make him a husband before he becomes a daddy.

Another great book from Brenda Harlen

By Connie Dave

Another great book from Brenda Harlen! Avery and Justin work as Drs. in the same hospital and have been fighting an attraction for 3 years. Finally after working New Years Eve together they give into that attraction and a baby is the result. Avery doesn't trust Justin because he is known as Dr. Romeo at the hospital and she doesn't want to have a relationship with a dr. due to her childhood having two parents as drs. Justin warms to the idea of being a daddy and wants to marry Avery. She is stubborn but Justin does not give up. I love that he was somewhat of a player but there were really no women in the book that caused them any issues. I felt the issues they had were more in line with real life. Justin did some really sweet things for Avery making this story a romantic, sexy (they had great chemistry) fun read. Of course loved hearing about the past Garretts and meeting new characters. Mainly Avery's brother! This is a great series I would highly recommend!

Better Than Grey's Anatomy!

By Jennifer DeCuir

The best thing about the Those Engaging Garretts series is that you can pick up anywhere and not feel lost. Each couple has their own story to tell and the rest is woven in subtly but efficiently.

Avery and Justin are well-developed characters right from the start. Harlen made it very easy to see how their simmering attraction could lead to a moment of wild abandon ... and a baby. The pacing of their relationship was perfect for their personalities.

The hospital setting reminded me of why I fell in love with Grey's Anatomy (McDreamy/Wall-Ice). Loved the gossip and the jealous nurse.

I love the contrast of their families' support. I got a huge kick from the epilogue - the most unique out of any book I've read.

There are so many Garretts and in-laws in this family that I look forward to meeting them all.

Garrett playboy has met his match!

By Kindle Customer

Another great Garrett story! I have been waiting for Justin's story and Brenda did not disappoint. Justin is an ER doctor and Avery is a Obstetrician and they have worked together for three years. Justin has the reputation of being a playboy, with gossip about him everywhere. Avery has avoided his flirtation and isn't interested, or so she says. New Years Eve, they are both working and it's a long night for both of them, when he catches her in a moment, and pulls her into the supply closet and they have sex without protection. She tends to ignore him after that, even though he tries to see her again. Avery had a bad experience with her former fiancée and doesn't trust men easily, plus she doesn't want another doctor, because both parents are doctors, and paid more attention to their careers than to their kids or each other, leading to a split. Avery soon finds out she is pregnant. Justin is shocked, but wants to marry her. She says no. He has an uphill battle getting her to believe he is interested in her only her and for herself. She fights it tooth and nail, but when she goes to tell her parents about the baby, her mom tells her to get rid of it, and she calls Justin, he drops everything to go to her in Atlanta. She starts to realize he is for real. He goes with her to see her dad, which goes much better. After a scare of a possible miscarriage, Avery moves in with Justin so he could watch after her, she stays five months! Then someone says something to her that has her running scared of the relationship they are building and moves back home. Justin gives her some time then professes his love in a very public way. She moves back in, but doesn't want to get married right away. Guess when she does, yep, the day the baby is coming! LOVE LOVE LOVE this series! Can't wait for Ryder's (Avery's brother) story coming next.
